Dear Mrs. Lukens:

So sorry to be out both times
you phoned. but Jim gave me
the message. I do well remember him saying her dad always warned them about sun strokes, and that it long as Spike had died of one so you can't hear of anyone having a sun stroke nowadays? I wonder if it was really such a!

After Christmas I'll phone
you and we'll have another chat about History - you helped me recall some things I'd forgotten. I do wish there was more record of the Spikes roll (over page 1)

in settling Verona, where it is now.
As mother always told it Alex.
Spoke was the first white man
to settle in the present village.
The original had been at the creek. He built a log house not far from where you lived,
near the Lake across the road,
and later the old beer house.
He gave the land for the Cemetery because an Indian cemetery was already on the shore there in the sand shore. He kept a large plot, which is still surrounded by cement. John mother eventually sold part of it to his Uncle John & Aunt Lotte Pluge, but there are still some spaces left.

The name Mrs. Burleigh's book,
"Forgotten Landmarks of Local History"
I hope he writes many more.

3.

The sad part of history is we are too young to listen when our parents are young enough to remember details. I do remember a good many things Mom told me, but seem to have forgotten a good many relationships, as to who married who, etc.

I hope you have a good Christ. Pass as much to all members of the family. Also say "Lili" to Buelah.

Uncle Fred told me before he died that one of Grandpa Thatsen's sisters married a Spiker who died young, and she later re-married. I'd like to know if he was a close relative of Jim's grandfathers and we might get some more family holding it!

I must get busy - Good health
to all

Sincerely

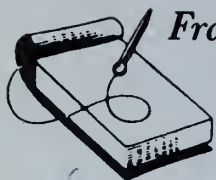

Agnes Deane

Several questions
that might guide you -

1. Do you have any more "info" about my grandfather, Antoine Guigue?
2. Any "info" about Granville when it started? I have quite a bit regarding Granville, but not when it began. Any photos, that I would return?
3. A capsule history of you & your family's stay in Sharbot Lake?
4. Any other stories, such as the "Best House" one? I'd never heard of it before.
5. Any photos of people or places in or around Sharbot Lake.
6. A photo of you & your brother & sisters?

I do hope I'm not asking too much. If I am please accept my apology.
Loris.

Dear Mr. Burleigh,

Thank you for your prompt reply to my letter; and thank you for your offer of help and words of encouragement.

I find that in this business of researching, people are divided into 3 groups. One group is very much interested & very co-operative. The second group is interested but not enough to volunteer any help. The third group couldn't care less.

When I receive a letter such as yours, I'm on Cloud Nine or in 7th Heaven!

From the desk of

DORIS E. AYERS

I've met & made some very warm, caring friends and I'm enjoying tremendously my project.

My husband Ralph (55 yrs) and I (54 yrs) have been married 32 years. We have 3 sons & 1 daughter, no grandchildren yet. My mother Leta Marie Guigue Jones (80 yrs) & Dad, Henry Jones (76 yrs) are living in Don Mills, Ont. My husband is the President of a Construction Equipment company and Ed-Clay is in California on his way to Arizona.

We just moved to this address on Oct. 1, 1978 after living in a home in Scarborough for 25 years.

From the desk of

DORIS E. AYERS

So you see I've loads of time & "ample" funds to pursue my project.

I'll eagerly await your next letter because I sense that you are going to be a BIG help. Having perused your book I know that you are a keen observer & that you have a sense of humor.

I've enclosed $11.00 to cover the cost of the book & mailing. If it is more, please, advise me. O.K.?

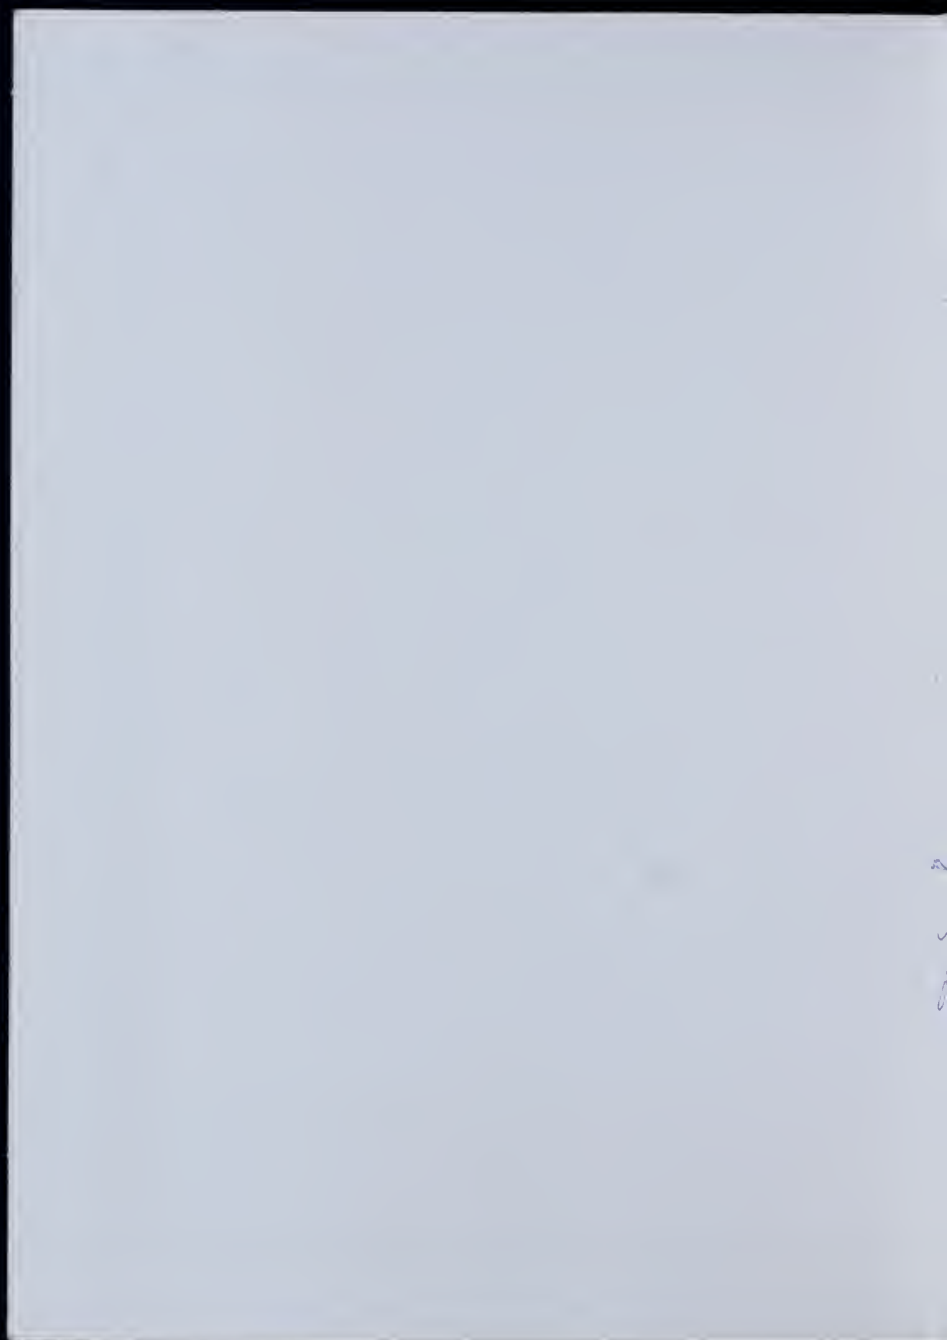

Thank you & your sisters & brothers for your help.

Sincerely,

Doris E. Ayers

Dear Editor:

In Edition #179 of the North Frontenac News there were two editorials which I would like to answer to.

In respect to letters not being signed, I will tell you two reasons why our letter on fluoride was not signed:

1. It is from a group of parents, and for space reasons we signed our article "Concerned Parents" (this didn't appear in the article).
2. I left my phone number and name at the North Frontenac News, and said to give it to anyone who called concerning the article.

The letters that were sent home to parents were provided by the Ontario Department of Health; all except the letter requesting volunteers. This all took place at the meeting in September and only six parents were there. As far as a misunderstanding between the teachers and the volunteer's there is none. The misunderstanding is between the teachers and Dr. Masaheb.

To the Editor:

The recent liquor plebiscite in Portland Township elicited some rather hyperbolic statements from the "NO" side concerning the availability of liquor at the North Frontenac Community Arena.

I must say that all such statements were pure conjecture, based on assumption and not on fact. No one bothered to ask us, The Board of Management, what our intentions were.

For the record, let it be stated clearly that we are not planning to have bar facilities available at the Arena on a regular basis. We are not planning to have alcoholic beverages available while the children are in the place. The thought never crossed our mind. Our only interest was in the possibility of obtaining special occasion permits in the off-season to increase rental opportunities, especially for large groups.

The citizens of Portland Township have indicated by their vote that they did not believe the nonsense they were hearing. We appreciate their perspicacity and thank them for their confidence in us.

Yours Truly
Marcel Giroux,
Chairman,
Board of Management.

I wish to take this opportunity to thank, publicly each and everyone who in a kind thoughtful and generous way, has contributed his or her time, knowledge, encouragement and enthusiasm to my project. God willing the "History of Sharbot Lake, people and places; past and present" will be printed by summer of '79.

Over the past two years, I have met a great number of people, who are now my friends. As Ralph Waldo Emerson, American philosopher said - "The only way to have a friend, is be one."

I also would like to wish Mrs. Hilda Geddes success in her "House Logs" research. With the kind people in and around Sharbot Lake, there is no doubt she will have as warm a response as I have.

Sincerely,

Doris Ayers.

BAKING NOW FOR CHRISTMAS

If you're planning to bake ahead for the Christmas season, now is a good time to do it, suggest the food specialists as the Ontario Ministry of Agriculture and Food. If you bake now and freeze the products, you can enjoy them later without any fuss.

First decide what kinds and how many Christmas goodies you wish to make. Make sure there will be enough room in your freezer for what you've planned. Choose cookies, cakes and breads that freeze well. If you are in doubt about freezing a particular product, prepare a small batch first and freeze it. Check the quality after two or three days.

Proper packaging is very important to help maintain the best quality of the baked products. The packaging must exclude air and prevent loss of moisture.

Cookies and squares can be packaged in freezer containers such as plastic, aluminum or cardboard lined with a thick plastic coating or plastic liner. Plastic film placed between the layers of cookies helps keep them from being crushed or broken.

Breads and cakes can be packaged in plastic freezer bags, plastic film or aluminum foil. Where necessary, seal packages with freezer or masking tape to ensure a tight closure.

If the cookies, cakes or breads are quite sticky or have a frosting, freeze them before wrapping. Once frozen, wrap well. This will prevent the frosting from sticking to the wrapping.

Always date the packages before freezing. For best quality, plan to use the baked goods within the recommended storage times. Baked cookies can be stored for four months. Quick breads, muffins and biscuits can be stored for one month, cakes or squares for four months, yeast breads for one month and fruit cake for nine months.

Dear Mr. Burleigh

I was most surprised and thrilled upon obtaining, at the library, your book "Forgotten Leaves in Local History".

On pages 165 & 166 you relate a story about, "The pest house that was built in a day".

The reason for my delight is that for almost two years now I've been researching material for my projected book to be called "Sharbat Lake, people and places, past and present".

What started out as a family tree study has turned into an historical one about the area.

My great great grandfather was Francis Sharbat a full blooded Mohawk. His daughter Mary Ann married my grandfather Antoine Guigue. His second wife was Mary Ann's daughter Margaret Ennis. My mother Leta Marie Guigue Jones, was the first child of that union.

I had not heard of that story before and I was wondering if you could help me out.

May I have permission to use that article, just as you have written it please?

I'm new at this business, so 'if' I appear naïve, that is why. If there^m is something else I require from you before using the article, please advise me.

I have spent a great deal of time interviewing the local people as well as spending hours at various archives and libraries.

In 1979, I plan to get the book into a readable form & then hopefully to get it published.

It has been fascinating talking over the "old days" with the Sharber Lakew, looking at old photographs & spending hours roaming through graveyards.

My second question is - "Where may I obtain a copy of your lovely book?"

Finally, my last question! Would you have any other stories or bits of "info" that I could use or possibly photographs?

I imagine I must seem pushy & forward but if I don't ask I'd regret, later not having tried.

I'm compiling the history in a way that everyone, who has contributed material or photographs to me, will be acknowledged one way or another, in the book.

3/

My husband and I (he's 55 and I'm 54) have a cottage on the Fall River Road, just where Sharbat Lake flows into Elbow Lake.

There is no place, like Sharbat Lake, Kingston and Ottawa areas, anywhere else in this country.

Thank you and take care,

Sincerely yours,
Doris E. Myers

James Note (to baptism of first child.)

On April 23, 1799, James Cannon, "a bound apprentice to Emmonson Burley, a hatter of the town of Kingston," prayed the magistrates that he be discharged from his indenture "for want of sufficient food and that he is employed as a servant and not at the trade of a hatter." Having proved his charge on the following day, he received the desired order from the Court. Messrs. Cartwright, Atkinson, Markland and Thomas appending their names to the document. John, paid £1.11.6 in 1792, "for making Fire + Sweeping the Church." On March 31, 1796, his wages were advanced to £10 a year, but in return for this amount he was to act as Clerk, Sexton, Bell Ringer, etc., etc., "and attend the Stove properly during cold weather."

In 1792 John Cannon, who had, in the year preceding, been appointed "Sexton," was made Clerk also. He so continued down to 1801, when he was succeeded in the sextonship by John Darkey.

On August 13, 1792, it was "Resolved that John Cannon shall be paid two shillings & six Pence for each Sunday that he officiates as Clerk, commencing May 27, 1792."

In April, 1795, his "Salary" was two years in arrears -- £23.11.7. He was then entitled also to £3.13.3 for collecting Poor money, for sale & rent, £140.10 at 2½ per cent.

On March 31, 1796, he was to receive £10 currency for the ensuing year, "for which sum he agrees to discharge the duties of Clerk, Sexton and Bell Ringer, &c., &c., and attend the Stove properly, during cold weather." On April 6, 1801, the consideration was made & 11

On May 7, 1797, he had been granted lots 182 + 205 in Town (U.C. Land Book B, P 240). From the Sessions Record it is clear that he was the Gaoler in 1794 and High Constable in 1798 + 1800, the salary attached to the former office being £10 per annum. It will be remembered that he was Clerk, Section, + Bell Ringer between 1792 and 1801.
